SMART'S INVESTORS AWARENESS PROGRAM SYNOPSIS

About SEBI

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) is the statutory regulator for the securities and capital market in India. Established as a non-statutory body in 1988, it received statutory powers on January 30, 1992, through the SEBI Act, 1992 to protect investors and ensure fair market practices.

SMART'S INVESTORS AWARENESS PROGRAM

This program Aim to provide Awareness Regarding how Frauds are happening in online Transactions and how to Avoid the loss if happened by using helpline no 1903 .

The speakers also explained how SEBI is protecting the Investors in terms of Fradulence.

Mainly Personal Financial Information is explained.

Students from All final year sections of B.COM & BBA participated

Objectives

The primary objectives of the program are:

- Teach Financial Basics: To create Awareness on core ideas like saving, budgeting, compounding, and beating inflation.
- Explore Investment Avenues: Introduce participants to diverse options including mutual funds, equities, bonds, and government schemes.
- Promote Financial Planning: Align personal investments with life goals such as retirement, education, and housing
- The Magic of Compounding: Show how a small amount invested at age 20 grows much larger than a big amount invested at age 30.and how the 50/30/20 rule in savings works .

Program Outcomes

- Understand core financial terms like inflation, compounding, and risk-return trade-offs.
- Identify diverse investment avenues including mutual funds, stocks, and fixed-income securities.
- Recognize the function of regulatory bodies like SEBI and market safeguards.
- Set clear personal financial goals for retirement, education, and healthcare.
- Evaluate and select proper investment products matching personal risk profiles.
- Implement portfolio diversification to lower overall investment risk
