Peer learning is an educational practice in which students interact with other students to attain educational goals. It enhances the learning experience and builds core skills like teamwork, communication, and problem-solving. It provides an opportunity for learners to share and discuss diverse perspectives, leading to a more well-rounded understanding of the subject matter

OBJECTIVES:

Peer learning is important because it is a powerful and effective way to facilitate the learning process and enhance the learning experience of students. It fosters a sense of collaboration and support leading to effective learning, interest among students and understanding complex concepts.

1. Improved retention of information
2. Increased motivation and engagement
3. Opportunity for collaboration
4. Development of social skills and communication skills

GIST

The department of computer science conducted a peer learning session on 10-02-2025 at 10:30am in accordance with the MOU with K.V.R Degree College. The focus of the session was on one of Microsoft’s most powerful tools- Power Business Intelligence (BI). Students from St. Joseph’s Degree College delivered a PowerPoint presentation on this topic. This session encouraged peers to collaborate and share knowledge. It facilitated retention and fostered social and emotional learning. The session wrapped up with the collection of a feedback form from the students of KVR Degree College to evaluate the overall experience of the session.

OUTCOMES:

1. Improved communication skills and confidence
2. Enhanced learning ability
3. Increased Accountability
